

2018 HIGHLAND REGIMENTS TUG OF WAR

On conclusion of the Preliminary Round Robin, we had

The Cameron Highlanders of Ottawa - 8 pts

The Toronto Scottish - 8 pts

The Brockville Rifles - 7 pts

42nd Field Regiment (RCA) - 4 pts

The Stormont, Dundas & Glengarry Highlanders - 3 pts

The Argyll & Sutherland Highlanders - Shut out

The top 4 teams moved to the Semi-final Round Robin where the Toronto Scottish moved into first place:

The Toronto Scottish - 7 pts

The Cameron Highlanders of Ottawa - 3 pts

The Brockville Rifles - 2 pts

42nd Field Regiment - 0 pts

In the Consolation finals were held at 515pm in the main jn-field. The Brockville Rifles took the first two pulls in a best of three over 42nd Field Regiment to claim 3rd place in the competition...a solid performance for two teams where this was only their second appearance at the Games.

The Championship round was a repeat of last year, once again featuring The Cameron Highlanders of Ottawa and The Toronto Scottish. Just like last year, the first pull went to The Toronto Scottish and the second pull went to The Cameron Highlanders of Ottawa. However, in the third and final pull, this year The Toronto Scottish outlasted their rivals from Ottawa and took the cup. The first time in six years that the cup has been won by a team other than the Camerons.

Well done to The Toronto Scottish and to all teams.

Final standings:

1st - The Toronto Scottish

2nd - The Cameron Highlanders of Ottawa

3rd - The Brockville Rifles

4th - 42nd Field Regiment (RCA)

5th - The Stormont, Dundas & Glengarry Highlanders

6th - The Argyll & Sutherland Highlanders
